

time apart
they say it flies but here no one was having fun
as simple as it seems
what a mission
it's been

succulent
inside a vase i put my hope the day you went
and moisturized the leaves with my deepest
beliefs

ripped apart
wet my eyes
closer now
new we rise

birthday girl
the matching outfits shone
as you were holding me
A photo inside my phone what a picture
to cry to

days from now
a chance to understand what this was all about the future near and bright but I want you
tonight
